THE NEW ADULTS-ONLY PALM GROVE POOL
New pool experience is inspired by the elements and overall serenity

KONA, HAWAI'I (May 16, 2011) –Four Seasons Resort Hualālai at Historic Ka'ūpūlehu, the first and only AAA Five-Diamond and Forbes Five-Star resort on Hawai'i Island, introduces the Palm Grove Pool Experience.

“We're renowned for our pools here, and our new Palm Grove Pool is yet another incredible experience our guests can enjoy during their stay with us,” says Robert Whitfield, general manager of Four Seasons Resort Hualālai. “Everything from the design of the pool and its furnishings to the nature-inspired amenities and cocktails speak to our quest to continually set the bar higher when it comes to the world's best resort pool experiences.”

The tension-edged saline/chlorine pool, measures approximately 40 feet from its basalt entry steps to its ocean-facing crescent edge, and 50 feet across. The Jacuzzi measures 8 feet by 16 feet and is set against a 2,500 square foot deck, made from Brazilian ipe hardwood and basalt planking. Seating areas are composed of 24 chaise longues by the pool, seven day beds in semi-private areas off the deck, and two hammocks. Miniature zen gardens are set on all chaise longue side tables, while fragrant gardenia and plumeria surround the pool for a hint of natural aromatherapy.

All guests of Palm Grove are serviced with hourly poolside pampering, inspired by the elements: coconut water and aloe refresher shots (water), warm lava stone pressure point placement (fire), thermal mud hand and body lotion (earth) and organic aromatherapy-infused oshiburi towels (air.) Additionally, organic eye pillows with essential oils are offered, along with a rotating selection of infused waters, sunscreen, reading materials and wooden board games.
